THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 29.

A STORY OF JOHN B. GOUGH.-" Keep your seat," said I, as my friend rose to go; "I cannot help remarking that old boomerang loke attempted to be played upon Gough by everybody's pet humorist, Mark Twain, and that Falstaffin jokist, the Fat Contributor. It has been told nefer but I should like to report it. been told vefore, but I should like to repeat it, stripping the story from the falsehoods by which it was formerly embellished.'

One evening Twain and Gris found themselve together at the Sherman house, in Chicago. rifting about in search of the picturesque. they followed the human stream till (to wear the metaphor threadbare) they stranded on a bar. Mr. Gough was staying at the house at the time, and, being unwell, had retired early.
A bright idea struck Twain's restless mind.
Let's send him up a cocktail!

Idea voted good and acted upon. Waiter arrived at Mr. Gough's room, "Some misake; never touch liquor." Waiter positive: Mr. Gough more so.

On the way down it occurred to the darkey that it was a pity the cocktail should be wasted. so he drank it, and reported "all right" at the bar. Twain and Gris, intensely delighted, thought they had caught the lecturer papping. "Let's send him up another," said Gris. Same result; cocktail receipted home by darkey. Excitement at fever heat.

"Give him brandy, strong!" shouted Twain.

Disappearance of darkey—ditto cocktail.

Report satisfactory; and the precious pair put their heads together and were concocting a plan to mix liquors on the temperance man when Mr. Gough entered the bar room, approached our heroes, and said:

"I am afraid you rest under a misapprehension. Seeing that I am being made the victim of some practical joke, I followed the waiter down, and saw him drink the liquor that I supposed you thought I had used. You will please refrain from sending any more up, as I have not felt the need of such drinks for years."

ap 20 226 South st., Pier No. 39 East river ATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY N is the only article entirely harmless which restores gray hair to its natural color and youthful appearance.

NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY contains no poisonous substances, no sugar-oflead, sulphur or nitrate of silver.

NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY restores gray hair in from three to ten days in every instance. We warrant it. NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY supplies the hair with new vitality, and hence stops its failing out.

NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY is perfectly cleanly; it does not soil the tinger makes dry and brash hair moist and glossy without, however, making it sticky, as other dirty articles of this kind do. Pomades and oils may be used, if desired, with this preparation, without impairing its usefulness.

growth of hair; though it is not claimed that it will be successful in every case. NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY is put up in large bottles, containing over half as much more as any other in the market, while its effects are more prompt and positive; therefore, it is certainly the most economical article in use. In short, there are a thousand reasons why you should use it in preference to any other—reasons which have induced the masses who use hair restorers to use it—and chief among which is the perfect safety with which you can apply it. Try it, if you have not done so already, and though you may have used something before, or for years even, yet we can assure you that after giv-ing CRYSTAL DISCOVERY a trial, you will gladly discard your previous favorite. If your druggist has not got it, take no other, for this is the only preparation you can use with safety, and which will perform its functions promptly. Ask him to get it for you. Price one dollar. ARTHUR NATTANS, JOBBING done at short notice, and by him-Sole Proprietor.

CHINE is still increasing, and the great number sold in this city during the past year is without precedent. The machine is question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful, and is beyond doubt less liable to get out of order than any machine claiming public attention, and can be operated by a child. The sales of this machine since its introduction have steadily increased, leaving all competitors far behind. This fact alone is a proof of its superior merits over all other machines. Over one hundred and fifty in daily use in this city, giving universal satisfaction. For references examine my books and judge for yourself.
